ABOUT TONY & MIMY

Tony Succar is a GRAMMY® and three time Latin GRAMMY® Award-winning producer, composer, and percussionist, acclaimed for his innovative fusion of salsa, jazz, and Afro-Latin rhythms. Born in Lima and raised in Miami, he gained global fame with Unity: The Latin Tribute to Michael Jackson.

His mother, Mimy Succar, a Peruvian-Japanese vocalist, launched her international career in her 60s. In 2025, she won two GRAMMY® Awards, including Best Tropical Latin Album for Alma, Corazón y Salsa, recorded live with Tony.

The live album made them the first Peruvian artists to win a GRAMMY in that category. Their youngest family member, Kenyi Succar, joined as co-producer, composer of the hit “AEO,” and live performer (keyboards and DJ).

A rare family story three generations on stage with a Peruvian soul
